Rayner Essex
www.rayneressex.com

We are Chartered Accountants, established since 1967, with offices in Central London and St Albans. St Albans is just outside London and close to Heathrow Airport. We have the knowledge, expertise, resources and technology to help businesses with their financial affairs. In addition, we have specialist experience of working for overseas corporations that have already set up over here. Rayner Essex LLP has played a key role in helping them establish their business and develop their UK activities.

We are highly experienced in looking after the personal taxation and financial requirements of private clients, including senior executives and company directors, and non UK citizens residing and working in the UK.

Through our membership of INPACT, an international alliance of independent professional accounts, Rayner Essex LLP has close ties and regular dealings with professional firms around the world. All in all, we know and understand the international corporate landscape.

www.inpactglobal.org

INPACT is an award winning global alliance of accounting firms, with over 140 members worldwide.

Since 1989, INPACT has grown steadily by carefully selecting each and every member. Its rigorous membership selection process ensures each member can meet its stringent criteria through their range of services, local reputation and level of service.

INPACT's member firms know their jurisdiction like the back of their hand and are often the sole member in their local market. They work together hand-in-hand when companies or private individuals need cross border advice. INPACT's referral guidelines ensure a consistent approach and that work is carried out in accordance within national statutory frameworks. As a result, INPACT is now recognised as one of the world's leading international accounting associations as published in the 2016 Accountancy Age Top 40 Networks & Associations Survey. In 2015 it won the International Accounting Bulletin 'Rising Star Association' award demonstrating its continued growth in a competitive market.

The network focuses primarily on small and medium sized firms of accountants. The network strives to bring accounting practices together who have a strong interest in producing good quality audit work. The network is a member of the Forum of Firms. Network membership provides the following benefits:

Improved Global presence and increased profile for the practice access to annual audit quality control reviews by the Kudos Directors unlimited access to audit software tools from our established sister company PCP Limited opportunity to attend an annual conference and share knowledge with likeminded professionals The network is in it's infancy and this is a great opportunity for a progressive Czech Republic Practice to become part of an international network and establish links and referral opportunities with other network members.

Alliot Group

www.alliotgroup.net

Alliott Group is an alliance of independent accounting, law and consulting firms with around 165 members in some 70 countries. The Group looks to deliver real value for its members by focussing on business and by helping its members to develop reputation and visibility within their respective markets as a firm of choice for entrepreneurs and businesses with multi-market service needs. We look to support our members to develop business on three levels:

- Locally – by helping to raise the profile of our members (and their staff) within their respective markets as the firms of choice for servicing cross border business (for both inward and outbound investment)
- Referrals – by creating an open and easy forum for members to refer their clients to one another as they look to do business in other jurisdictions

New business – through the sharing of information and the development of third party relationships with organizations and the buyers of professional services

Aspire – Achieve – Enjoy!

This is our mantra. We work with business owners and individuals who often forget why they ever started in business in the first place. In addition to providing compliance accountancy services, we help them aspire to those goals that are meaningful to them, and through specific and targeted processes help them achieve those goals. Once those financial goals are achieved we help them enjoy the fruits of their labours through appropriate financial and tax planning.

If you are a business owner with ambition – we want to talk to you. If you feel the rewards you are reaping are not sufficient for the effort you are putting in to your business – we want to talk to you. If you are frustrated that your business is - not growing fast enough – we want to talk to you.
