

British Chamber of Commerce and Deloitte Czech Republic invite you to participate in the breakfast briefing

Human Capital Trends 2017

11 May 2017 at 8.30 am

Office of the BCC

Na Florenci 15, Prague - Florentinum Building

Deloitte.

Deloitte's Human Capital Trends draw upon a survey of more than 10,000 HR and business leaders globally, including those from the Czech Republic.

Deloitte's consultants will introduce this year's trends and challenges ahead for business and HR leaders in a dramatically changing digital, economic, demographic, and social landscape.

A discussion about the challenges associated with leading, organizing, motivating and engaging the 21st century workforce on the Czech market will follow.

REGISTER HERE

Speakers:

Evžen Korděnko, Director

Evžen is Central Europe Human Capital leader based in the Czech Republic. His experience cover complex service offerings such as Business Transformations, Organization Design, Sales Effectiveness, Leadership development and Strategic Change for major players on the market.

Martina Zapletalová, Manager

Martina is a Manager in Human Capital Advisory Services in the Czech Republic. She has experience with talent management, performance management, strategic change management and technology adoption. Martina worked for clients across Central Europe, the Netherlands, Germany, and the United Kingdom.

The event is free of charge