

British Chamber of Commerce and Vodafone Czech Republic invite you to participate in the

Round Table Discussion II

Women with children in the labour market. Time for a campaign?

We will discuss the issue of how employers, other women and their managers see women on parental leave; whether there should be the synergy of the cooperation and if there is time to join forces for a campaign to support this important issue, as it is being discussed nowadays.

Who should attend: CEOs, HR Directors, HR Managers and Diversity Specialists
