

Networking Event:

How will your business change after Brexit?

10 January 2019

17.00 - 19.30
(registration at 16.30)

Venue:

British Embassy Prague
(Thunovská 14, Praha 1)

The British Chamber of Commerce and PwC cordially invite you to participate in the Networking Event How will your business change after Brexit?

Agenda

16:30 – 17:00	Registration
17:00 – 17:10	Welcome speech by the British ambassador to the Czech Republic Nick Archer, Vice Chairman of the BCC Petr Karel and Partner of PwC Olga Cilečková
17:10 – 17:20	Impact on free movement of persons and access to the labour market; Social and health insurance	Tomáš Hunal, Partner PwC
17:20 – 18:00	Impact of Brexit on Global and EU trade, covering implications of a UK border on goods movements, increase in administration and duty costs. Planning for Brexit, tax approvals, logistics and data/system changes.	Matthew Paul Clark, Head of UK Customs, Excise & International Trade Team
18:00 – 18:10	Use of double taxation treaties in the most frequent business cases with Great Britain	Boris Gnoth, Senior Manager PwC
18:10 – 18:20	Legal consequences of Brexit for Czech and British companies and the likely new EU-UK cooperation regime	Daniel Pikal, Lawyer PwC Legal
18:20 – 18:30	Personal view of a Czech living in the heart of the financial world for ten years. „What did Brexit mean for me?“	Olga Cilečková, Partner PwC
18:30 – 19:30	Reception & Network

Who should attend: CEOs, owners and members of the British Chamber of Commerce Czech Republic and representatives of the companies who will be affected by Brexit. Please note the capacity is very limited.

Register: Register on the website of the British Chamber of Commerce or contact PwC