

BCC Board Chairman Guy Barker Esq. cordially invites you to attend

OPEN GARDENS AT VILLA RUDOLFA

Glad to meet you in person again!

When: 12 June 2021 at 4:30pm

Where: Villa Rudolfa

Zdenka Lhoty 469, Černošice

This restored 1st Republic garden will be open to the public on 12 and 13 June, from 10pm to 4pm each day, as part of the nationwide Víkend otevřených zahrad event. BCC and Equilibrium Programme members are cordially invited to a private viewing followed by cocktails and strawberries and cream from 4:30pm on Saturday 12 June, after the grounds close to the general public.

Dress: Casual - dogs and kids are welcome. The villa is a short walk from Černošice train station and there is plenty of parking nearby.

RSVP by Saturday 5 June to pavel.fara@britcham.cz

About the gardens

Partially-restored grounds and gardens of a large 1st Republic riverside villa in Černošice, comprising formal parterres with an English and historic rose collection, herbaceous borders, established boxwood topiary, orchards, wild flower meadows and vegetable gardens. Original English greenhouse and orangery, arboretum and extensive landscaped frontage to the River Berounka

